Give Honor to Whom Honor is Due

6th Annual Honors Evening

Tuesday
June 7, 2011
7:00 p.m.

Overton Memorial Library
On the campus of Heritage Christian University

Honors Evening provides opportunity to tell the special individuals in your life how much you love and appreciate them. A lasting gift of a book is placed into Overton Memorial Library with a bookplate stating the honoree's name and who donated the book. Those who have participated in the past Honors Evenings have been enriched by not only seeing the growth of the library but by being recognized as special in someone's life. We hope that you will take part in our upcoming Honors Evening.

The first Tuesday evening of June has been set as the permanent date of our annual event. For 2011, the date is June 7. The previous five Friends of the Overton Memorial Library Honors Evenings have been outstanding successes. More than 1,600 books have been given. Many good people have been greatly encouraged.

We would love to have you on campus for this event. If you would like to participate in the 2011 Honors Evening, we suggest the following process:

1a. If you wish, choose from among the following categories:

Biblical Studies
