How to Make Your Life Count by Dennis Jones

The author includes dozens of anecdotes, stories, and poems that vividly demonstrate how you can develop a purpose, what you can control, and how you can leave a legacy that continues to speak long after you are gone.

I Am: A Study of the True and Living God edited by Jeremy W. Barrier and Charles R. Webb

“Then Moses said to God, “Indeed, when I come to the children of Israel and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His name?’ what shall I say to them?” And God said to Moses, ‘I AM WHO I AM.’ And He said, ‘Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, I AM has sent me to you.’”

This short interaction between God and Moses speaks volumes about the nature of the God of heaven and earth. Join this group of Bible scholars as they examine just who He is and why He alone can call Himself, simply. . . I AM.

You Say Disability, I Say Opportunity: The Autobiography of Robert Reid by Robert Reid

Robert Reid worked as a missionary in Portugal for over 35 years. He has a B.A. and M.S. in Missions from Abilene Christian University. He is currently a volunteer at the John Middleton Unit State Prison in Jones County, Texas, where he and his wife, Rosa, minister to inmates and tell them about the love of Christ. His is passionate about speaking to others about all the blessings the Lord has brought into his life and professing the ways that God can transform our weaknesses into tools for the kingdom.

Where Fresh Waters Flow: The Restoration Plea by Cory Collins

Water at its clearest, purest, and healthiest is always found at the source. One who has tasted such (?) water treasures it highly, resisting and refusing all possible contamination. Where Fresh Waters Flow: The Restoration Plea challenges the reader to revisit the faith, teaching, and practice of the first-century church, to drink deeply, and to draw others to the New Testament's Christ-centered, life-giving, thirst-quenching message.

Equipping the Saints: A Practical Study of Ephesians 4:11-16 by Bill Bagents and Cory Collins

Ephesians 4:11-16 offers a goldmine of instruction and encouragement for all who want to help the church grow. More than that, it challenges every Christian to grow into the blessing of mature service. Equipping the Saints: A Practical Study of Ephesians 4:11-16 invites the reader to engage this rich text on a real world level. It invites every believer to ask, "How can God use me to bless His church?"

Each book is priced at $10 each. Churches and bookstores receive a discount if ordering 10 or more copies.
