

Articulation Agreement

Between Amridge University and Heritage Christian University

Amridge University and Heritage Christian University, in mutual agreement for the support and benefit of all students who wish to participate, do enter in and commit to this articulation agreement.

Heritage Christian University shall:

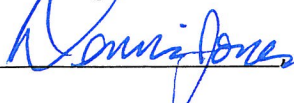

Provide instruction and services in its Master of Biblical Studies, Master of Ministry, and Master of Divinity degree programs that meet or exceed the standards of academic quality associated with program admissions requirements, program course requirements, ratio of student engagement time to credit earned, course content standards and teacher qualifications as currently provided by Heritage Christian University as documented in the materials submitted by Heritage Christian University to Amridge University August, 2012.

Amridge University shall:

1. Accept and give full credit for the Master of Biblical Studies, Master of Ministry, and Master of Divinity degree programs from Heritage Christian University for students entering a master or doctoral degree program at Amridge University per the requirements specified in the Amridge University Academic Catalog;
2. Accept for transfer, courses taken at Heritage Christian University in the Master of Biblical Studies, Master of Ministry, and Master of Divinity degree programs, subject to the total allowable transfer credits into the Amridge University program at the time that the student is admitted, for students entering a master or doctoral degree program at Amridge University;

Amridge University and Heritage University further agree that either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other party specifying therein the effective date of termination after which neither party shall have any further right or obligation to the other with respect to the Agreement.
