

AMRIDGE UNIVERSITY

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

BETWEEN AMRIDGE UNIVERSITY AND HERITAGE CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY

Amridge University and Heritage Christian University in mutual agreement for the support and benefit of all students who wish to participate do enter in and commit to this articulation agreement.

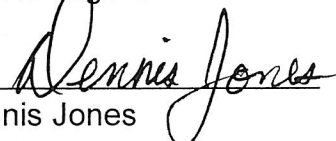

Heritage Christian University shall:

Provide instruction and services in its Associate of Arts in Biblical Studies degree program and Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies degree program that meet or exceed the standards of academic quality associated with program admissions requirements, program course requirements, ratio of student engagement time to credit earned, course transfer standards and teacher qualifications as currently provided by Heritage Christian University as documented in the materials submitted by Heritage Christian University to Amridge University on or before March 23, 2010.

Amridge University shall:

1. Accept and give full credit for the Associate of Arts in Biblical Studies degree from Heritage Christian University for students entering a bachelor degree program at Amridge University;
2. Accept and give full credit for the Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies degree from Heritage Christian University for students entering an advanced program at Amridge University; and
3. Accept for transfer courses taken at Heritage Christian University in the Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies program subject to the total allowable transfer credits into the Amridge University program at the time that the student is admitted and subject to courses being collegiate level courses normally accepted by Amridge University.

For Heritage Christian University

Dennis Jones
President

Date: June 2, 2010

For Amridge University

Michael C. Turner
President

Date: 05/24/10