REAL-WORLD MINISTRY

FROM HERITAGE TO 'ALL THE WORLD'

BANGKOK, THAILAND
WITH JUSTIN BRETHERICK

For the first time ever, I boarded an international flight and attempted my first mission trip abroad this fall. The first week of October, my father, Perry and a team from Salem met up with alumnus Subin Panboon in Bangkok at the Friendship Church of Christ. We conducted a gospel meeting that led to six baptisms during our trip. We hope to return to keep brethren encouraged.

PORT AU PRINCE, HAITI
WITH DR. ED GALLAGHER

Every year I teach a one-week intensive course at the Haiti School of Biblical Studies, about an hour east of Port-au-Prince. This year, my scheduled trip happened to be just a couple weeks after Hurricane Matthew swept through the area. Fortunately, the area was not affected by the hurricane as much as other parts of Haiti, so our class continued without interruption.

Because God is involved, the future of the gospel in Haiti is bright. I can make no predictions on the political, cultural, or economic realities of Haiti, but perhaps God is using the chaos in those areas to bring people to himself. At any rate, the students I teach are hungry for spiritual nourishment and ready to provide that same nourishment to others. I am excited about what the future holds.

YANGON, MYANMAR
WITH JOEY BARRIER

This October, HCU Student Adam Miller and I took a group to Myanmar to work with the Lisu speaking people. We also taught at Myanmar Bible College. Each student will return to their various Burmese homes to strengthen their current congregation or to plant a new one. We were encouraged to learn that there have been reports of over 40 baptisms from last year's mission efforts in nearby southern China.

GIVING TUESDAY

The holiday season is just around the corner, and we invite you to kick it off with HCU on #GivingTuesday, November 29.

#GivingTuesday is a global day of giving back. On the Tuesday following Thanksgiving, you'll have the chance to join people around the world and support a cause close to your heart.

This #GivingTuesday, help us give the gift of soul-work. By joining the movement, you're helping spread the gospel and save souls. Your partnership in training preachers, Bible teachers and missionaries is appreciated more than words can say.
