TITUS CAMP

Teens In Training for Useful Service Camp has been held on the campus of Heritage Christian University in Florence, Alabama, for 18 years and is one of the largest, longest and most cost-effective ministry training camps to build up young men and women within Churches of Christ.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

6-8 hours of instruction including:

Homiletics, Special Emphasis, Library Research, Manna in the Morning, Chapel, Impromptu Speech, Power Hour, Small Groups and Dorm Room Devos

 Classes are taught by HCU professors, TITUS Camp staff, and Shoals area ministers and church leaders.

Daily activities including:

hiking, games, ultimate frisbee, soccer, movies, karaoke, etc.

One hour daily for rest, meditation and journaling

 The "field guide" can be downloaded online.

Campers are assigned at least 2 counselors or mentors and placed in a group of 8-10 kids (family cluster). They work together on lessons from Monday-Thursday, practice on Friday-Saturday, and deliver their assigned message on Sunday. The women teach a ladies' Bible class, and the young men will preach in a classroom or morning worship service at a Shoals area congregation!

178 CONGREGATIONS IMPACTED

Titus Camp is the only training camp where ALL campers are given a preaching & teaching appointment on Sunday morning!

381 STUDENTS TRAINED FOR MINISTRY

Past campers represent 18 states. Dozens have gone on to full-time or part-time ministry around the world! Many students are given scholarships to HCU for further training.
